

Animal play set 44 pieces h821_06

Set of 44 interlocking soft plastic animal-shaped building blocks. Ideal for motor and cognitive development in educational and play environments.

The animal-themed modular building set is an educational tool designed to stimulate higher cognitive functions and hand-eye coordination in preschool children. Through interaction with the 44 included elements, young users can explore spatial logic concepts and develop problem-solving skills, turning play into an opportunity for collaborative learning and socialization. The flexible plastic material ensures comfortable handling, allowing the figures to be assembled and disassembled with ease to create infinite morphological combinations.

Technical features

- Material: High-resistance and flexible soft plastic
- Composition: 44-piece kit representing various animal figures
- Design: Simplified anatomical shapes to facilitate grip
- Modularity: Interchangeable and interlocking elements
- Variety: Multicolored assortment for visual stimulation

Image purely indicative

INFORMATION

