

Built-in digital seconds counter clock h788_04

Built-in digital seconds counter clock. Ideal for operating rooms in hospitals and clinics. Dimensions: W. 635 x h. 360 mm.

Digital seconds counter clock with built-in installation for operating rooms, to accurately monitor the passage of hours, minutes and seconds in an environment where precision is one of the fundamental elements. Easy and immediate to read, it is composed of a counter-frame to be fixed to the wall, a steel case painted with epoxy resins with the protruding part covered by an external stainless steel frame and a protection surface for the dial in 3 mm thick shockproof crystal. The ideal solution for keeping the passage of time under control.

Technical features:

- Clock with digital seconds counter
- Dimensions: W. 635 x h. 360 mm
- Installation: built-in
- Steel case painted with epoxy resins
- Counter-frame to be fixed to the wall
- External stainless steel frame
- Protective glass in 3 mm thick shockproof crystal

Images are purely indicative.*

INFORMATION

