

Computer lab table GR.5 h908_201

Single-seater computer lab table in steel and melamine, 80x80 cm, size 5. Ergonomic C-frame structure for laboratories and secondary schools.

The GR.5 H908_201 table is a technical solution specifically designed for the setup of computer rooms and multimedia educational laboratories. The single-seater configuration ensures rational management of individual space, offering a stable and deep work surface, essential for housing computer hardware and paper supports simultaneously.

The distinguishing feature is the "C" structure made of steel tube with a diameter of 40 mm, designed to maximize user comfort by eliminating frontal obstacles and facilitating access to the workstation. The robust design and materials used ensure a long life even in contexts with high frequency of use.
