Pendant lamp h6443

Polyethylene suspension lamp that is inspired by the classic fabric chandelier . Diameter. 110 x Height 51 cm

Suspended lamp for Serralunga by Luisa Bocchietto who was inspired by the classic chandelier in pleated fabric and reinvented in hard plastic, polyethylene lthrough-coloured made by rotational moulding process.

The shade folds back with a striking design that masks the lightsource like a filter. This technical and aesthetic solution allows for greater visual comfort and softer atmospheres. It's simple, beautiful and extraordinarily modern lamp with two different light sources can be switched separately or simultaneously.

It has extra large proportions and is ideal to illuminate large linving rooms
