

Medical step stool for surgeries h666_18

Step stool for clinics in ABS and chrome-plated square tube. 39x20 cm step for optimal view during procedures and specialist examinations.

The clinic step stool is an aid designed for surgeons and outpatient doctors during procedures requiring a close and optimal view of the patient and the intervention area. Its simple and functional geometry allows for positioning that guarantees accuracy and precision operating, facilitating the execution of diagnostic and therapeutic procedures with high visual control.

Technical features

- Structure in chrome-plated square tube
- Step in ABS
- Finish: chrome-plated
- Dimensions: W. 39 × D. 20 × H. 24.5 cm
- Walking surface: 39 × 20 cm

Image for illustrative purposes only

INFORMATION

- number steps 1
- Material metal

Medical step stool for surgeries h666_18

---

Number steps: 1

Material: metal

