

Modern design urban street furniture bench h140_323

Modern 150 cm galvanized steel bench for urban street furniture. 3-seater design with weather-resistant dual-color finish. The h140_323 outdoor bench is an urban furniture solution designed to combine contemporary aesthetics with maximum structural resistance. Characterized by a modern and innovative design, it integrates perfectly into avant-garde architectural contexts such as newly designed public parks, city squares, condominium courtyards, and pedestrian walkways.

The structure is entirely made of galvanized steel, a material chosen for its high capacity to withstand prolonged exposure to atmospheric agents without undergoing oxidation processes. The three-seater configuration and dual-color finish make it a functional and decorative element with a high performance profile.
