

Motor skills triangle for nursery school h821_20

Motor skills triangle h821_20 in robust plastic. Develops balance and coordination safely. Indoor/outdoor use from 3 years.

The motor skills triangle for nursery school h821_20 is a preparatory structure designed to promote physical development and body self-awareness in children from 3 years old. Made of robust and colorful plastic, this tool solves the need for dynamic paths that stimulate the sense of balance and coordination in total safety. Its ergonomic configuration is designed to instill confidence at every step, allowing the child to experiment with different postures and movements. Thanks to the resistance of the materials, the triangle is also suitable for outdoors, making it a versatile element for outdoor play areas or school gyms. Designed with an eco-sustainable approach, the product is 100% recyclable, ensuring long life and full respect for the environment.

Technical features

- Dimensions: 103 x 45 cm
- Material: Robust plastic, impact and weather resistant
- Coloring: High-visibility colored finish
- Recommended age: From 3 years
- Scope of use: Suitable for indoor and outdoor environments
- Sustainability: 100% recyclable product
- Primary function: Development of gross motor skills and sense of balance

 Images are purely indicative*

INFORMATION

