

Okumè wood and galvanized steel bench h330_44

Urban furniture bench with galvanized and painted steel structure and okumè plywood seat. Dimensions: L. 1800 x D. 480 x h. 420 mm.

The h330_44 bench is an elegant and functional solution for urban furniture, designed to withstand time and offer comfort in high-traffic public environments.

The structure is made of galvanized and painted steel, with legs created through laser cutting and bending for a precise and resistant finish. The base plate is equipped with 12 mm holes for ground anchoring.

The seat is made of 7-layer okumè plywood, a material known for its resistance to humidity and atmospheric agents, ideal for outdoor installations.

The finish of the steel structure is available in various RAL colors, to best integrate into public contexts, parks, green areas, and pedestrian zones.

A balance between natural materials and metallic structure, for contemporary and durable urban furniture.

Give a touch of warmth and solidity to your public spaces with the h330_44 bench, in okumè wood and painted steel.

Technical features:

- Model: without backrest
- Dimensions: L. 1800 x D. 480 x h. 420 mm
- Seat: okumè wood plywood panel (7 layers)
- Structure: galvanized and painted steel
- Available structure colors: various RAL shades
- Legs: laser-cut and press-bent sheet metal
- Base: plate with 12 mm holes for fixing

User benefits:

- Quality materials: galvanized steel and outdoor-resistant okumè wood.
- Guaranteed stability: base prepared for secure ground anchoring.
- Contemporary design: combines natural wood and modern metallic structure.
- Seating comfort: the plywood ensures a pleasant surface.
- Versatility of use: suitable for public spaces, paths, relaxation areas, and parks.

FAQ:

1. Does the wood resist rain?
Yes, okumè wood is treated to offer resistance to humidity and atmospheric agents.
2. Is it suitable for high-traffic contexts?
Certainly, the steel structure and layered wood are designed for intensive public use.
3. Is it suitable for installations in natural green areas?
Yes, the combination of natural and resistant materials makes it perfect for parks and gardens as well.
4. Does it require special maintenance?
Periodic cleaning and, if necessary, restoring the protective treatment on the wood will prolong its life.
5. Where is it recommended to place it?
Ideal for urban parks, pedestrian paths, school areas, and outdoor waiting zones.

Mini buying guide:

The h330_44 bench is an excellent choice for those who want to combine structural strength and aesthetic warmth in a single piece of urban furniture. The okumè plywood ensures excellent durability, while the painted galvanized steel provides stability and corrosion resistance.

Thanks to its simple design and available finishes, this bench fits perfectly into any type of urban project, offering a reliable, beautiful, and functional solution.

Okumè wood galvanized steel bench, resistant urban bench, design bench with wood and metal, painted steel urban furniture, public seating with layered wood.

Images for illustrative purposes only.*

Upon request, it is possible to purchase the bench with a different finish of Okumè wood.*

INFORMATION

- Depth in millimetres 480.000000
- Width in millimetres 1800.000000
- Height in millimetres 420.000000
- Material legno, metallo

