

Safety button for restraint belts h983_10

Automatic locking button in polycarbonate/ABS with locking on stainless steel pin, designed for the secure locking of restraint belts. It is removed exclusively with the safety key (not included).

The H983_10 safety button is an essential device to ensure a secure and controlled locking of restraint belts in hospitals, clinics and healthcare facilities.

Made of durable polycarbonate/ABS, it is equipped with an internal mechanism with locking on a stainless steel pin, which prevents accidental or unauthorized opening of the belt.

It is removed exclusively with the magnetic safety key (purchasable separately).

Medical prescription is recommended for the use of the product and its applications.

Buy the H983_10 safety button now to ensure a reliable and protected restraint system!

Technical features:

- Material: Polycarbonate/ABS
- Locking: On stainless steel pin
- Compatibility: Restraint belts with overlapping eyelets
- Opening system: It is removed only with a safety key (not included)
- Use: Quick locking of safety belts

Benefits for the user:

- Maximum safety: prevents unauthorized removal of restraint belts.
- Resistant materials: built in polycarbonate/ABS and stainless steel for a long life.
- Reliable locking system: can be used only with a dedicated magnetic key.
- Easy to apply: quick fastening in the overlapping eyelets of the safety belts.
- Ideal for healthcare facilities: perfect for hospitals, clinics and nursing homes.

FAQ:

1. Can this button be removed without a safety key?
No, it is designed to be opened only with the magnetic safety key (purchasable separately).
2. What materials are used for the construction of the button?
The button is made of resistant polycarbonate/ABS, with an internal stainless steel mechanism.

3. Is the button compatible with all restraint belts?

Yes, it is compatible with restraint belts with overlapping eyelets.

4. Is the safety button sold individually?

Yes, the safety button is sold separately from the safety key.

5. Who can use this locking system?

Only specialized healthcare personnel, in compliance with medical and safety regulations.

Mini buying guide:

If you need a secure and controlled locking system for healthcare restraint belts, the H983_10 safety button is the ideal choice.

Designed to ensure stability and prevent accidental openings, it is perfect for hospitals and care facilities.

Compatible only with magnetic safety key (purchasable separately).

Safety button for restraint belts, locking system for hospital belts, healthcare restraint accessories, closing button for safety systems, safety device for hospitals, safety button for patients.

Image purely indicative.*

The following item is suitable for skus: H983_01, H983_02, H983_03, H983_04, H983_05, H983_06, H983_07, H983_08.*

The product opens exclusively with the safety key H983_09.*

INFORMATION

