

Wall eyes washing in stainless steel h8316

Wall mounted eyes-washing with manually opening and stainless steel wall bearing

Emergency eyewash for the decontamination of harmful substances in accordance with the regulations for the protection of health and safety at work. The interception device of the washing liquid to be under must be designed and constructed so that vengattivo by the user and that the flow remains constant without the need for interventions successivi. Il device must remain open until deactivated intentional on the part of the user.

Specifications:

- stainless steel wall bearing
- built in flow automatic reducer
- tray in stainless steel AISI 304
- push opening
- flow rate l / min 11 with pressure from 1 to 9 bar
- height: 23 cm
- width: 30 cm
- 2 years warranty

INFORMATION

- Typology Doppia
- fixing wall
- Con Vaschetta Si
- Azionamento a leva